

Health and Safety Report, Field Season 2013

There were six Conchological Society field meetings in 2013. Risk assessment documentation was drawn up for all these meetings and there are no incidents to report. There were also two field meetings organised by others with CS support; risk assessment documentation was drawn up by the organisers, and there are no incidents relevant to CS to report.

Mike Allen

February 2014